

THE SUNDAY COLLECTS: FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let's take a look for a few moments at the Collect or Opening Prayer for the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

*Grant us, Lord our God that we may honor you with all of our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.*

Pope Gelasius

This seemingly simple little prayer is among the oldest of all the prayers we use at Mass. It's first found in the old Leonine or Vernonese Sacramentary, sometime in the seventh century. But in all probability, the prayer is even older than that. One scholar suggests it was written by Pope Gelasius, which moves it back a couple hundred more years. And that's where things get interesting. Pope Gelasius is believed to have written or collected a considerable number of prayers which eventually find their way into the Mass. The one we prayed today was originally written for January 29, 495. That's right: by coincidence that was 1,517 years ago today! But January 29th had a specific significance in those days...it was just before the ancient Roman pagan festival of the Lupercalia. It was an ancient rite which was the last of the old pagan rites to be suppressed by the Christian religion, and before Gelasius took them on, it involved all kinds of strange public rites with lots of sex and violence. And it may be that Pope Gelasius wrote this prayer as a kind of antidote to the sex and violence of these ancient superstitions. That's not where our minds should be, he's saying. We should use our minds to honor God: to worship Him. That's not where our hearts should be. We should use our hearts to love everyone in truth. We may not have public pagan festivals replete with X-rated rites, but we do live in a culture that seems obsessed with sex and violence: sex which seldom has anything to do with love and violence born of selfishness and uncaring greed. So, maybe, the Church preserves this ancient prayer to say to a world that worships pleasure and uses sex as a form of entertainment: give your mind not to self-serving fantasies and pornographic perversions: but to the honor of God, whom we should worship with every bit of our minds! And stop using and abusing people as if they were your playthings, stop selling your heart to the latest cheap entertainment or the highest bidder, but love everyone in truth of heart: the truth that God is love and we have been made in His image and likeness to love everyone, from the greatest to the least, from the most lovable to the most despicable, from the most attractive to the ugliest, from the richest to the poorest, from the most deserving to the least deserving: that our hearts might be true to the love for which we have been made! So, even though we don't run around in goat skins, whipping and molesting each other in an orgy of violent paganism, we still need to hear Pope Gelasius' prayer:

*Grant us, Lord our God that we may honor you with all of our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.*

Prayer for Vocations

Lord of the Harvest, help us to create a true culture of discernment and vocations in our parish so that all of us in this parish family may seek to faithfully offer our lives as a loving response to your first gift of life and love. Illuminate our families to be a light, working together to bring your kingdom of justice and peace, not just here in this community, but in the whole world. By your Holy Spirit, may our hearts burn more and more to know Your Son, Jesus Christ, and to make Him known forever. Amen.

Oración por las vocaciones

Señor de la cosecha, ayúdanos a crear una cultura verdadera de discernimiento y vocaciones en nuestra parroquia, para que todos nosotros en esta parroquia familiar podamos ofrecer fielmente nuestras vidas como respuesta amorosa a tu primer don de la vida y el amor. Ilumina nuestras familias para ser luz, trabajando juntos para tener un reino de paz y justicia, no solo en esta comunidad, sino en el mundo entero. Que por tu Espíritu Santo, puedan nuestros corazones conocer más y más a tu hijo Jesucristo y darlo a conocer por siempre. Amen.

Candlemas Day Blessing of the Candles

On Thursday, February 2nd, forty days after Christmas, the Church celebrates the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Because it echoes the Christmas festival, this day is a celebration of light and darkness.

For nine centuries, it has been tradition to bless candles on this day. Because of its simplicity and beauty, the candle has continued to be used when the Church gathers for prayer, both in public places and in the home. We will continue the tradition the Church has had for nine centuries and bless candles that you bring after the 8:30 am and 5:30 pm Masses on Thursday, February 2nd, the Presentation of the Lord.

ENTRANCE SONG

All Creatures of Our God and King

William H. Draper

All Creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice with us and sing. Alleluia! Alleluia! Thou burning sun with golden beam, thou silver moon with softer gleam! O praise him, O praise him, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Thou rushing wind that art so strong, Ye clouds that sail in heaven along, O praise him! Alleluia! Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice, Ye lights of evening, find a voice! O praise him, O praise him, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Glory to God

Steven R. Janco

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Psalm 95

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

OFFERTORY SONG

The Summons

John L. Bell

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know and never be the same? Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known, will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare? Will you let me answer pray'r in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name? Will you set the pris'ners free and never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

COMMUNION SONG

Blest Are They

David Haas

Blest are they, the poor in spirit, theirs is the kingdom of God. Blest are they, full of sorrow, they shall be consoled.

Refrain: Rejoice and be glad! Blessed are you, holy are you! Rejoice and be glad! Yours is the kingdom of God!

Blest are they, the lowly ones, they shall inherit the earth. Blest are they who hunger and thirst, they shall have their fill.

Blest are they who show mercy, mercy shall be theirs. Blest are they, the pure of heart, they shall see God!

Lord, When You Came

Willard Francis Jabusch

Lord, when you came to the seashore you weren't seeking the wise or the wealthy, but only asking that I might follow.

Refrain: O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing, kindly smiling, my name you were saying; all I treasured, I have left on the sand there; close to you, I will find other seas.

Lord, you knew what my boat carried: neither money nor weapons for fighting, but nets for fishing, my daily labor.

CLOSING SONG

How Can I Keep from Singing

Robert Lowery

My life flows on in endless song, above earth's lamentation. I hear the real though far-off hymn, that hails a new creation.

Refrain: No storm can shake my in-most calm, while to that rock I'm clinging. Since love is Lord of heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing.

Through all the tumult and the strife, I hear that music ringing; it sounds and echoes in my soul; how can I keep from singing?

Quiero servirte, mi Señor. Eres mi vida, mi amor. Quiero hacer tu voluntad, siempre a tu lado, mi Salvador.

Dame poder, para vencer, dame la luz hacia la cruz.

Dame poder para vivir, hazme capaz ver a tu faz.

CANTO DE COMUNIÓN

Pescador De Hombres

Cesáreo Gabaráin

Tú has venido a la orilla, no has buscado ni a sabios ni a ricos; tan solo quieres que yo te siga.

Señor, me has mirado a los ojos, sonriendo has dicho mi nombre, en la arena he dejado mi barca, junto a Ti buscare otro mar.

Tú sabes bien lo que tengo; en mi barca no hay oro ni espadas, tan solo redes y mi trabajo.

Tú necesitas mis manos, mi cansancio que a otros descansa, amor que quiera seguir amando.

Tu pescador de otros lagos, ansia eterna de almas que esperan, amigo bueno, que así me llamas.

CANTO DE SALIDA

Id y Enseñad

Cesareo Gabarain

Sois la semilla que ha de crecer, sois estrella que ha de brillar. Sois levadura, sois grano de sal, antorcha que debe alumbrar. Sois la mañana que vuelve a nacer, sois espiga que empieza a granar. Sois aguijón y caricia a la vez, testigos que voy a enviar.

Id, amigos, por el mundo, anunciando el amor, mensajeros de la vida, de la paz y el perdón. Sed, amigos, los testigos de mi resurrección. Id llevando mi presencia; con vosotros estoy.
